

SUHF's expert group on internationalization issues is organizing a seminar on Thursday, October 3, 2019 with information and discussion about Sweden's participation in European Universities.

Date: 3 oktober 2019

Time: kl.13.00 – 16.00. Registration from 12.30.

Venue: Folkets Hus, Barnhusgatan 12-14, Stockholm. Conference room 202.

Agenda

12:30	Registration
13:00	Welcome Eva Åkesson, chair of SUHF's expert group for internationalization and rector, Uppsala University
	Introduction, presentation of how things went for Swedish applicants in the pilot call of European Universities Mette Svensson, International administrator at KTH who participated in the pilot call
13:15	The European perspective <ul style="list-style-type: none">• EU Commission: Preliminary evaluation of the pilot announcement and information on upcoming calls Tine Delva, European Commission- Directorate-General for Education, Youth, Sport and Culture, Policy advisor; Unit on Higher Education• Experience and inspiration from applicants in other European countries Professor Dr. Ludovic Thilly, University of Poitiers, Chairman of Coimbra Group's Board of Directors, coordinator of an application in the pilot call
14:20	Coffee break
14:40	The Swedish perspective <ul style="list-style-type: none">• How can we act at Swedish level to support Swedish participation in upcoming calls? Anna Gudmundsson Swedish Ministry of Education Daniel Edquist, Swedish council for higher education, UHR
15:00	Panel discussion with time for questions on the theme: Possible and desired information / support for upcoming calls: EU level, national level, university level. Who can do what in what way? Discussion leader: Sigbritt Karlsson, Rector of the Royal Institute of Technology, KTH Panel: Today's speakers and two representatives of Swedish higher education institutions who were active in the pilot announcement
15:50 – 16:00	Summary, reflections and conclusion Eva Åkesson